IID Supports Green Design

The green movement is rapidly gaining momentum and there is a compelling need for professionals and practitioners to produce energy efficient buildings in response to the growing challenges of global warming and the severe water and energy limitations we face in certain regions. The IID supports green design and the Green Building Conference, taking place from 8 - 10 November 2007 at the CSIR ICC in Pretoria, as Interior Architecture and Design Professionals have a great influence in terms of which products and solutions are specified and procured. The conference presents the new SABS standards for energy efficient buildings as well as leading edge knowledge and insight from national and international speakers.

IID Members are invited to attend at a preferential rate, as extended to other built environment professionals, of R2400,00 exc VAT per person. (Std rate is R7000,00 exc VAT). Refer to the attached Conference Program or contact Bambi Zulu Events at bambiz@capemedia.co.za to book □

IID FOUNDING MEMBERS

the design Partnership • (Pty) Ltd

Designers from across Africa will meet on 1 - 2 October in Cape Town to deliberate the challenges facing design professionals on the African continent and the need for communication and collaborative opportunities. The initiative will be jointly hosted by the SABS Design Institute, the Communication Design Council of SA (THINK), the newly formed Industrial Designers Association of SA, (IDEASA) and The South African Institute of the Interior Design Professions (IID)

Professional designers stand to benefit from forging ties with like-minded professionals from other African countries. This is an excellent opportunity to see what is happening design-wise on the rest of the continent. At this event cooperation will be of the utmost importance with collaborative projects and partnerships being envisaged.

Design industry leaders, both in the private and public sector, will be able to broaden their horizons and will be given the opportunity to further the principles of NEPAD and to strategise around the design professional on a regional basis.

No fees will be charged but attendance will only be allowed by prior registration at www.sabs.co.za.

What's happening in the Regions?

The IID supports Members across South Africa from the Gauteng, KwaZulu Natal, Eastern and Western Cape regions. With the appointment of the new IID management team, many of the regional responsibilities are now handled by the National Office in Johannesburg. Each region has its own IID Regional Liaison Representative with whom Members can share ideas and concerns for their area. Meetings, education seminars and social and networking events are planned to reflect local needs.

Our Regional Liaison Representatives are:

KZN – LIANNE VAN NIEKERK KZN@IIDPROFESSIONS.COM
E/CAPE – GILLIAN ADENDORF ECAPE@IIDPROFESSIONS.COM
W/CAPE - JOHN AUTARD WCAPE@IIDPROFESSIONS.COM

Whilst most of the IID's events take place in the major centres, we recognize the difficulty that Members from the outlying areas may have attending these events. Telephonic and email feedback is available to all Members. The IID is also keen to establish more networking and education possibilities for our Members and to build our regional profile with the public and welcomes your feedback or suggestions here □

CAPE TOWN REGIONAL REPORT FROM JOHN AUTARD

"Dennis Kung our MD was down in Cape Town to meet with our Members to discuss where the IID is heading and what was expected from the IID. Sharon Sager kindly hosted an informal meeting at her studio in Gardens on Monday the 27th of September 2007. It was great to see such a good turn out of our Professional Members and areas of concern were addressed, particularly reasons for being Members and what was expected of the IID. One of the main issues was recognition by the public of Members' professional status and of fee structures.

"We will be hosting a General Meeting at the Selections Warehouse in Gardens on 4th of October to coincide with our Marketing Director, Laura Hayward's, visit to Cape Town to attend the DEFSA conference. Cape Town Members will be able to collect their new IID membership cards and certificates at the meeting.

Laura will be in Cape Town for 3 days and hopes to meet with as many of our Designer and Supplier Members as possible" □

IID MEETS IN PRETORIA

Dennis Kung and Laura Hayward from the IID enjoyed a wonderful morning with Members from Pretoria on 14 September 2007. The meeting was kindly hosted by Engela Smith in her superb showroom in Menlo Park. It was agreed that the IID would plan further meetings / events in Pretoria and that the hosting of these sessions would be rotated amongst the Members in the region. Refresher computer and CAD training were highlighted as a key area of development for Members, which the IID is currently investigating □
